 - B. Teacher Appreciation (Melissa Luxmore): Thinking of an “Over the Rainbow” theme for this month. Possibly doing a black cauldron with gum and gold coins. For Teacher Appreciation week in May, thinking of a “Hollywood” theme, so if you have any ideas, send them Mel’s way.

The committee consists of Rachel Price, Melissa Luxmore, Ashley Welch, and Michele Stehling. We have received 5 applications thus far. We will have a score sheet for each grant and vote for approval.
 - D. Young Authors (Melissa Luxmore): A decision was made to kickoff Young Authors, starting March 1st and then have the books due on April 1st. We will have the author from the Family Reading Night draw 3 names from those students who have already turned in their books by March 31st, and they will get a free autographed book from the author! Young Author assembly will be April 21st. A pamphlet for Young Author’s will be going home with students on March 1, 2022.
 - E. Family Reading Night (Michele Stehling): This year’s author is Tammi Sauer. Her hotel and flight are booked. She will come on March 30th for assemblies with the students and then March 31st will be the Family Reading Night. We need to book food from Hyvee for luncheon. A flyer will be going home tomorrow with an order form to order books in advance and to tell Farmingdale families more about the event. Our used book collection is accumulating. Spread the word about the box in the elementary lobby!
 - F. Auction (Lara Donovan): We have 75 tickets purchased thus far including 6 VIP tables. We have 65 silent auction items. Handbid training is done.
